If you plan to let your kids play the game, you may want to password protect your account to prevent accidental purchases. Privacy Policy: when I watched the game before downloading it, I thought it was a little different and more exciting. The negatives are too much water, rocks falling on you, and so you miss the clock, big truck, etc. overturning easily, big snow man coming out of nowhere to go in the water, very narrow roads, too many houses and small rocks on the road, lightning speed might be missing coins, get sick of ticking clocks, hate going underground a lot of turns, etc. I had to switch to a big stomper truck to get over the water and get over the little rocks. Fast going is only good between straight and jumps. I like to use magnets for multiple coins. Just like other games, you have to learn during racing. After the other game, I was also thinking of a monster, etc. will jump. I was shocked to see that the next update to the truck is 15,000-20,000 coins! The thing that gives you an elevator doesn't care too much because I thought it worked differently. I wish this game was as good and lasted until Beach Buggy Racing. Finally, the game is frustrating as HELL, keep making you lose, the monsters, flying devils, very narrow roads, etc. I could play Beach Buggy Racing with one eye closed like this crap! The game does not allow you to play with your fingers on both sides as the Russian player. If you can cheat this game, more power to you!!! You!!!
